

ADHD
FOUNDATION
Allied Neurodevelopmental Services

UKAP
THE UK ADHD PARTNERSHIP
Building better futures for children with ADHD

The 4th annual ADHD Foundation Annual Symposium presents:

“New Directions in ADHD and other Neurodevelopmental Conditions.”

13th–14th October 2016 at The Titanic Hotel , Liverpool

BOOK EARLY - SOLD OUT IN IN 2015

A two day conference exploring new ideas, approaches and best practice in Health, Social Care and Education for children, young people and adults with ADHD, ASC and other neurodevelopmental conditions. Presentations include:

Day 1: Thursday 13th October

Presentations include:

Epidemic or under diagnosis? New approaches to medication, ADHD and Attachment, Early identification and diagnosis, Transition to adult services, Adult ADHD, Comorbidities, Women and ADHD, State of the art Neuroimaging and ADHD.

Day 2: Friday 14th October

Presentations include:

Engaging disaffected learners, Combining a medical and educative approach to ADHD , Schools working effectively with CAMHS, Successful parental engagement, Reducing learner stress and anxiety, Improving behaviour, Child and adolescent mental health in schools.

Speakers include:

Rory Bremner ( Patron of the ADHD Foundation ) Stephen Drew (“Educating Essex” and “Mr Drew’s Boys”) Professor Eric Taylor, Professor Chris Hollis, Professor Philip Asherson, Professor Susan Young, Fintan O’Regan, Professor Peter Hill, Dr Madeleine Portwood, Dr Katya Rubia.

FOR INFORMATION CONTACT:

Email:

colin.foley@adhdfoundation.org.uk

Call: 0151 237 2661

www.adhdfoundation.org.uk

To attend both conference days: (includes the delegate dinner on 13th October) £195

To attend one conference day: £120

SUPPORTED BY

